10 November 2016: Edition No 298

From the President ...

Earlier in the year 19 or so of our members had an overnight trip to see some beautiful gardens around the Orange district. Sharon and Lynton suss out all sorts of garden treasures for these trips, but this time they also enlisted the members of the Orange Garden Club to make some suggestions. They opened one of their gardens and hosted a fabulous morning tea for us (I ate too much as usual but hey ... I was on holidays!) so Sharon graciously offered to reciprocate if they wanted to venture up the Mountains. Last Saturday Dorothy and Lyle Davis, Janine Shoemark and Geraldine Sternberg all opened their gardens for this group of 40 gardeners. We set up morning tea at the Davis's thanks to Jane, who carted all of the club supplies over there. She and four other committee members whipped up some yummy offerings to accompany the cuppa. They were a happy and interested group and we all enjoyed renewing acquaintances made. They very generously gave a well-thought-out gift to each of the garden owners, plus one to Sharon to share with all of you. So today's lucky door prizes are from our good friends in Orange.

It's been a full Garden Club year once again with wonderful gardens to hear about and visit, but like every year we have had some challenges to face in our private lives so, on behalf of our happy and hard-working committee, I want to wish all of our wonderful members and their families a very Merry Christmas, good health, safe holidays and sincere good wishes for the year ahead. I feel we are a family of 130 like-minded people and feel blessed that I am part of it.

... Celeste

Lambs' Ears (Stachys byzantina) Silver Carpet is an excellent ground cover. It can also be planted as edging and mowed over. It is drought tolerant and hardy. Lambs' Ears is not invasive and can be removed very easily. Propagation is by division. Dig out a clump with a sharp shovel and divide. The Lambs' Ears plants in the photo above are in my back garden.

Narelle Nolan

Our Speakers for today are Shannon Decker and Stephen Vella

Shannon Decker is the Director of Now & Zen Landscapes. Shannon has extensive landscape experience and knowledge and leads a team of dedicated people who provide expertise from concept to completion. Stephen Vella, who joined the team this year, is one of the leading horticultural designers in the Blue Mountains. He has 25 years' experience, having worked in both Sydney and The Blue Mountains Botanic Garden, Mt Tomah.

Today Shannon and Stephen will discuss ponds, their construction, maintenance and plantings.
